British Ignore U.S. Plea, Will Sell to Reds

LONDON (AP)—Plans to sell British road building equipment to Cuba and to extend a huge credit to the Soviet Union for massive purchases of factories were reported today.

The disclosures came as Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home headed home from Washington after making clear to President Johnson that Britain intends to continue trade with Cuba and the Communist bloc. He says Britain must trade to survive.

Three Cuban government officials arrived to negotiate for the purchase of road rollers and earth-moving equipment, said to value $1.4 million. At the same time a group of London banks was reported preparing a credit to finance a deal with the Soviet Union for up to $448 million worth of British fertilizer and other non-strategic chemical plants.

Colin Ryan, managing director of the Aveling Barford plant at Granham, said his firm is negotiating to sell road rollers and earth-moving equipment to Cuba. He did not give the value of the transaction but said the amount is substantial.

E. Germany Offers to Reopen Wall

BONN, Germany (AP)—The West German government and the West Berlin Senate turned down today the East German offer to reopen the Berlin wall for the Easter holidays.

A joint announcement by the government and the Senate said they were fully agreed on the refusal.

The East Berlin government said Thursday night it was willing to allow West Berliners to visit East Berlin during Easter on the same basis they had during the Christmas holidays.

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BERLIN (AP)—West German and Allied officials cautiously studied today a Communist East German offer to reopen the Berlin wall for the Easter and Whitsun holidays.

The Communists offered the same conditions that allowed more than 500,000 West Berliners to visit relatives in East Berlin for family reunions during the Christmas and New Year's holidays on one-day passes.

The East Germans suggested renewal of the old agreement Thursday at the sixth meeting between Erich Wendt, East Germany's deputy cultural affairs minister, and Horst Korber, a West Berlin city official. They negotiated the previous agreement.

The holiday agreement gave West Berliners their first chance to visit relatives in East Berlin since the Communists erected the wall in August 1961. Thousands of West Berliners waited for hours in bitter cold and snow to apply for one-day crossing permits.

West Berlin newspapers bitterly assailed the East Germans for insisting on such an ordeal of red tape. Since then, Western officials have demanded a new method of handling crossing applications.

To meet these objections, the East Germans proposed opening temporary permit offices in West Berlin schools as early as Feb. 25 for an Easter crossing period from March 21 to March 30 Easter Sunday is on March 29.

The East Germans gave no indication how long they would keep the wall open for the Whitsun holiday. Whitsunday falls on May 17.

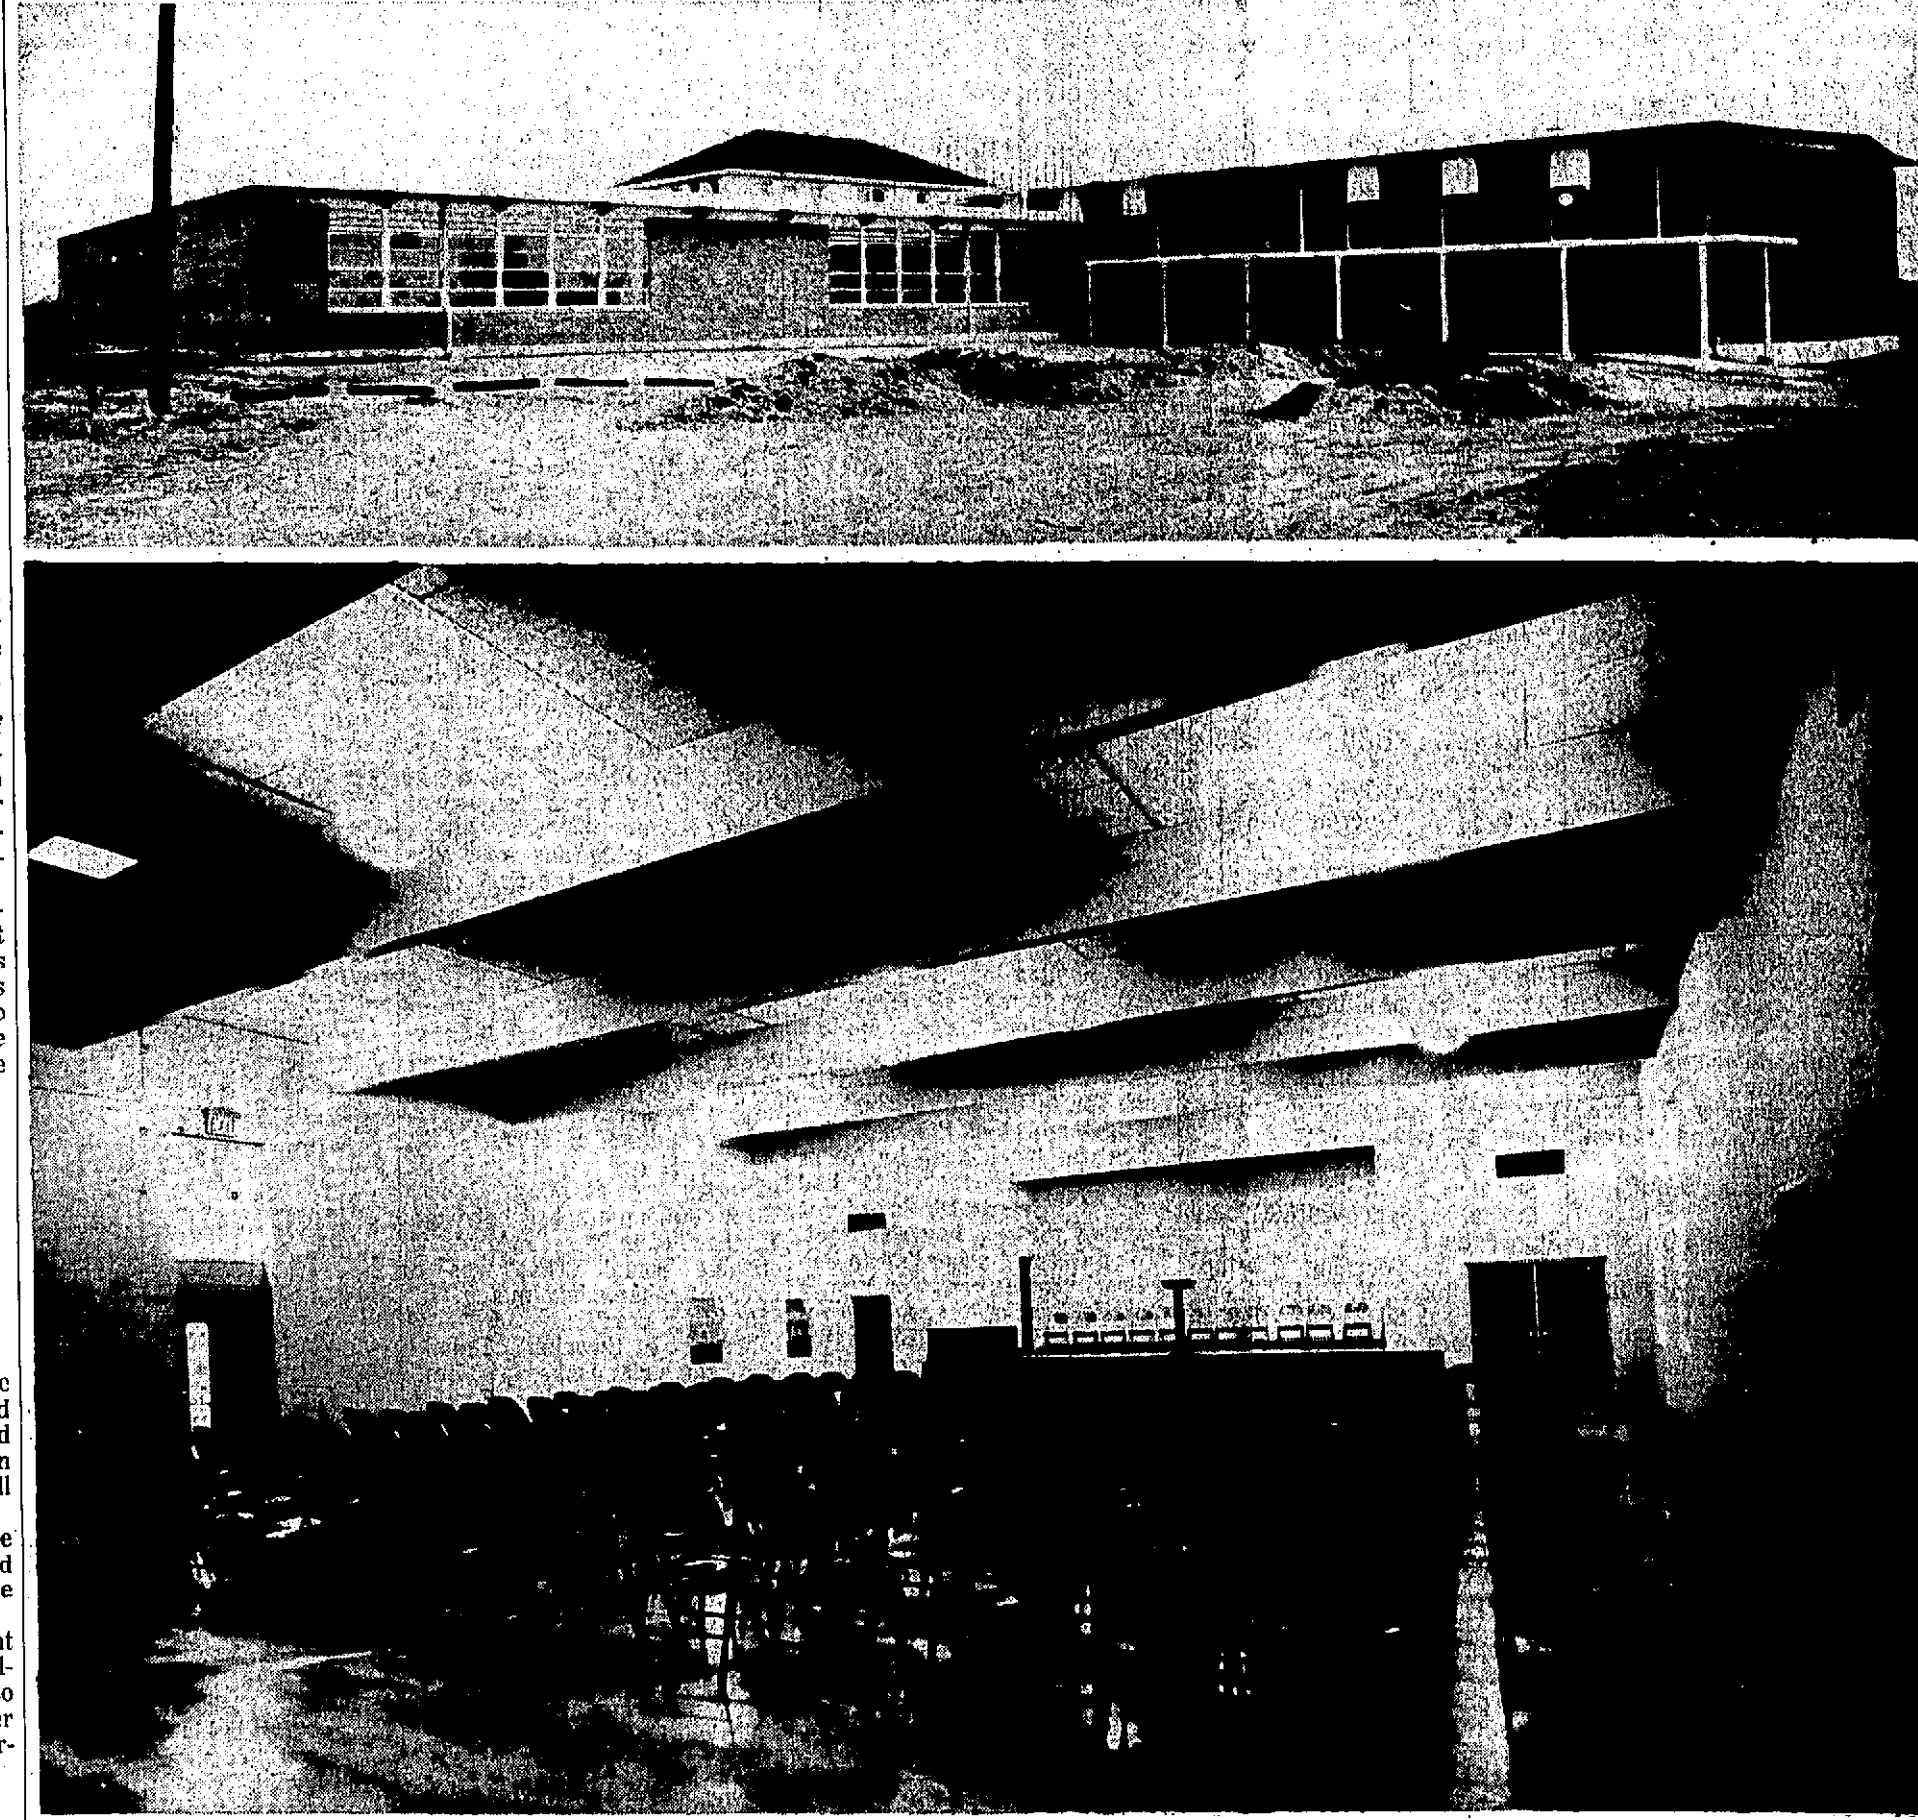

Injecting two new elements, East Germans indicated they favored special rapid processing for family emergencies and suggested easier requirements for the reunion of separated husbands and wives.

Hempstead Native Dies at Nashville

Mrs. Mamie Price Ramage, 83, a native of Hempstead, died Tuesday at Nashville. Survivors include her husband, two sons and two daughters. Services were held Thursday.

Cosa Nostra Figures Will Not Talk

NEW YORK (AP)—Thomas (Three-Finger Brown) Luchese, long reputed to be a power in organized crime, took the 5th Amendment today before a special grand jury probing rackets here.

Luchese remained silent when asked about narcotics, gambling, labor racketeering and other activities, authorities indicated. Also citing the 5th Amendment, Luchese's brother, Joseph, refused to testify. So did four other men said to be in the "family" Luchese allegedly heads in the Cosa Nostra crime syndicate.

Federal prosecutors instructed them to return next month for more grand jury appearances, along with 25 other Luchese associates who remained silent before the jury previously.

The child, Michael Sorum Rockefeller, was born Jan. 27 to the Rodman Clark Rockefeller, who have three other children.

McLarty Is Amour Award Winner

Mac McLarty, Hope High Student Council president, was presented the Joe Amour Award Wednesday morning by Principal Jack Beatty in an assembly.

The Joe Amour Award is a service award presented by the Student Council in memory of the late principal, whose motto, Principal Beatty emphasized, was "You have to think right to be right." The award is presented quarterly in recognition of outstanding service to the school.

Mac has received the award three times, something never before accomplished, and has been the only student to get it while a freshman.

In addition to being Student Council president, Mac was All-district quarterback, Boys' State governor, and Youth Senator. He also maintains an "A" average.

St. Louis to Observe 200th Year

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—St. Louis begins a two-year celebration of its 200th birthday today with a Valentine's Day visit by President Johnson.

The President may not find the usual Feb. 14 atmosphere of hearts and flowers. Not only will 1,000 Missouri Republicans be pitching political woo at their annual Lincoln Day rally, but some civil rights advocates have threatened to demonstrate. Johnson will begin the bicentennial celebration with a 20-minute nonpolitical speech to a sell-out crowd of 1,800 at a St. Louis hotel tonight.

The President is scheduled to arrive by plane from Washington at 4:45 p.m. He will visit the partially built 630-foot high gateway arch on the Mississippi riverfront, see a new industrial area and address students and plant a tree at St. Louis University.

The President is scheduled to fly back to Washington tonight.

TOP PHOTO: OPEN HOUSE FOR THE LOCAL PUBLIC WILL BE held from 2 to 5 p.m. this Sunday, Feb. 16, at the new Hopewell Elementary School, completed this week as the final step in Hope's $185,000 bond issue construction program for the Negro schools. Picture shows exterior of new Hopewell school, on old U.S. 67 East highway. Fresh gravel had been dumped in the front yard and there wasn't time to spread it Thursday before making the photograph for today's Star.

A. T. Pradmore, 64, Lake View, Oregon, died Wednesday in a hospital there after a lengthy illness. Survivors include his wife and two sisters, Mrs. O. W. Amos of Hope and Mrs. Ida Gandy of Edinburg, Texas. Funeral services will be Saturday in Lake View.

Didn't Like Money

CHELMSFORD, England (AP)—Cashier Keith Rogers of the Essex County Council burned $1,302 in a waste paper furnace, Chelmsford magistrates were told Thursday.

Rogers, 46, pleaded guilty to larceny of the money and was put on probation for two years. He told police: "I couldn't stand the sight of money any longer and I had to burn it."

Rotary Club to Honor Teachers

Tonight, February 14, the Hope Rotary Club will honor their Rotarians and also local teachers at a dinner at the Barlow celebrating the 46th anniversary of the local club and the 59th anniversary of Rotary International. It's the first time the teachers have been invited with the Rotarians.

Rufus A. "Rudy" Martin, Vice-President and Secretary of the Simmons First National Bank of Pine Bluff, will be the special guest speaker. He is Past President of the Pine Bluff Jaycees, Past President of the Pine Bluff Rotary Club a number of the Arkansas River Basin Commission, and a member of the Pine Bluff Chamber of Commerce. The father of two and the grandfather of one, he describes himself as a Serious Humorist.

Hope Rotary Club President Vic Cobb says that the local organization has 41 business and professional men as members. They meet once a week to plan their program of service activities, which include contributions toward the maintenance of a Hospital for Crippled Adults in Memphis and for Rotary Foundation Scholarships of one year's study overseas.

On a world-wide scope, 11,600 communities in 125 countries have 544,000 Rotarians who speak 35 tongues.

Tunnel Fad Is Under Probe

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—A special agent for the Missouri Pacific Railroad is in Conway investigating a new teen-age fad—standing inside a tunnel while a train goes through.

A. R. Huskey of Coffeyville, Kan., the special agent, said he understood that "tunneling" was mainly a sport for boys but that girls were involved on at least one occasion.

The youngsters reportedly huddle against the tunnel walls while the train passes through.

Not only is there danger of being hit by the train, Huskey said. Poisonous gasses sometimes collect in railroad tunnels.

Huskey said the railroad hoped to catch the teen-agers and prosecute them for trespassing and malicious mischief.

Tax Cut May Take Only Three Days

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP)—House and Senate conferees expect to hammer out a tax reduction compromise in about three days next week—which would mean millions of Americans could begin drawing bigger pay envelopes before mid-March.

One day of preliminary discussions this week apparently demonstrated willingness on both sides to resolve amicably the more than 200 changes the Senate made in the House bill. All but a handful of these are technical or minor.

The conferees got back to discussions and probably start voting Monday. One of them predicted agreement by Wednesday—possibly even by Tuesday—on a bill to reduce personal and corporate income taxes by about $11.5 billion. This would be bigger than the House cut and smaller than the Senate version.

Last week the Senate approved a cut of $11.6 billion. The House had approved a cut of $11.1 billion last Sept. 25.

The rest of the week would be needed to write a conference report and the House would be expected to act—with approval virtually assured—about Feb. 24. Senate leaders have spoken of taking the measure up the day the House finishes work on it. Under such a schedule the bill could go to President Johnson for his prompt signature before the end of February.

Withholding rate cuts—the equivalent of a small pay raise for wage-earning and salaried Americans—would begin a week later if, as expected, the conferees retain the Senate wording on this point.

Two big issues are in controversy between the two chambers. The House voted more lenient tax treatment of certain long-term capital gains than present law provides. The Senate deleted this provision.

Another major difference between the two bills relates to the deduction, for federal income tax purposes, of state and local taxes. The House bill would abolish the deduction of state and local gasoline and special excise taxes, like those on tobacco and liquor, but permit income, general sales and real estate still to be deducted. The Senate version would continue the present provisions.

Negroes Charged in Armed Robbery

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Four Negroes charged with armed robbery in theft of $1,400 from Pack's Grocery Store near Sherrill pleaded guilty in Jefferson Circuit Court Thursday and were each sentenced to 45 years in prison.

Pulaski County Deputy Sheriff Sam Hallum, who questioned the defendants before their hearing, said statements by them cleared up about 20 robberies and burglaries in Pulaski County within the past month.

The sentences were meted to Allen Nelson, 18; Theodis Clark, 24, and Ernest Lee Jackson, 21, all of North Little Rock, and Granville Anderson, 31, of Little Rock. Each got three consecutive 15-year terms on three counts of armed robbery.

A fifth man charged in the burglary, Alfred Pope, 32, of North Little Rock, did not enter a plea and is in the Jefferson County Jail.

The three counts of robbery involved the taking of $1,200 from the store, $90 from a salesman and $130 from a dairyman.

Russia Asks Right to Talk With Defector

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union has asked that its officials be permitted to see Yuri I. Nosenko, a Soviet secret police officer who defected to the United States, and officials said today that arrangements will be made to meet the Soviet request.

The Moscow government now has protested against Nosenko's defection and has asked the United States for information as to how it happened.

The protest was registered in Moscow today by Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko with U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler.

Kohler promptly reported to Washington. Authorities here declined to release details but indicated Gromyko had taken the line that the U.S. government was responsible for Nosenko's behavior.

Washington authorities privately concede they are puzzled by the excitement the Soviet government has shown to be building up over what Washington officials had considered an interesting but not especially extraordinary defection case.

Some wonder whether the Soviets may be using the Nosenko incident as a takeoff point for an attack on the 17-nation Geneva disarmament conference. Nosenko was on assignment as a member of the Soviet delegation at Geneva when he defected.

Prior to Gromyko's meeting with Kohler today the Soviet government had sent a note to Washington asking for information as to the circumstances under which Nosenko came into the hands of the United States.

The Soviet note, informants said, also declared that Soviet representatives would like to see the defector. State Department informants said the United States would not discuss the matter.

Lawyer Told Data Was Classified

WASHINGTON (AP)—L. P. McLendon, special counsel for the Senate's Bobby Baker investigation, says that when he asked executive agencies for background records on a key witness he was told they were classified.

The witness he was referring to is Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance agent whose testimony brought the name of President Johnson into the inquiry being conducted by the Senate Rules Committee.

McLendon told newsmen Thursday that he inquired of both the Defense and Justice departments, prior to Reynolds' testimony, if background records on him were available. "I was informed the reason they were classified," McLendon said.

Since Reynolds testified, columnist Drew Pearson has published derogatory information about him as material that came from files of the Defense Department and other agencies.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., a Rules Committee member, demanded Thursday that the Pentagon and the FBI investigate what he termed the use of leaked official information "to destroy witnesses whose testimony becomes embarrassing."

The committee is investigating whether Baker, who resigned last Oct. 7 as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, engaged in outside business dealings that conflicted with his official duties or involved other improprieties.

World's Oldest 39-Year-Old

He doesn't look it or feel it. He makes one comment: "Thank God, I haven't had a sick day in my life."

The other day he had a polyp removed from his nose but that was just a minor interruption in his busy television schedule. The doctors asked him what anesthetic he was allergic to.

"I don't know," he replied. "I've never taken any before. I've never even had a tooth pulled."

ABC Plans Pro Games Friday Nights

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Despite threatened legal action, the American Broadcasting Co. is pushing ahead with plans to invade the traditional stronghold of the nation's colleges and high schools by televising five National Football League games on Friday night.
In rapid fire succession Thursday, ABC announced its coup in grabbing rights to the five games, the NFL said the announcement was premature and the colleges sent up a howl that presumably hit its target in Washington, D.C.
These were the developments:
1. ABC confirmed an earlier report on the projected five games and said the Ford Motor Co. would sponsor the Friday night programs. The games, or clubs involved, were not named but it was understood one of the teams involved would be the Cleveland Browns.
2. The colleges and high schools, insisting the plan infringed on their traditional Friday night domain and violated a 1961 federal statute dealing with anti-trust legislation in sports, sent their legal hands scurrying to check the fine print.
3. Pete Rozelle, NFL commissioner, said the entire question was "academic" because the league has not made up its schedule, will not do so for six weeks and presently "has no contract with ABC."
4. The spectrum of pro football programming on Friday, Saturday and Sunday—and possibly Monday in 1965—increased alarm in some television and sports quarters that pro football might destroy its gate appeal because of over-exposure in its push for television money.
The tempest of the television tubes was touched off by ABC's announcement that it had reached agreement to broadcast the five games, between Sept.
25 and Oct. 23, according to one network spokesman. The games were held out of the package recently sold by the NFL to the Columbia Broadcasting System for $14.1 million a year.
In a prepared statement, ABC said there is no violation of any federal statute because the programming deals are being made with the individual clubs and not with the league itself. One source estimated that ABC, which holds the rights to all American Football League games, may have gone as high as $5 million for the five NFL games.

Arkansans Hammer Out 10 Victories

JACKSON, Tenn. (AP) — Arkansans fighters, mustered from a dying program at home, slugged out victories in 10 bouts
as the Mid-South Golden Gloves opened Thursday night.
Fighters from Blytheville,
Forrest City and North Little Rock were entered in 15 of the 19 bouts, and triumphed in two-thirds of them.
Many fight programs in Arkansans have been abandoned in the past few years because of little spectator interest.
But the Arkansans were victors in seven of the first eight matches Thursday night.
Stan Brawley of Forrest City outpointed Randy Stewart of Jackson, Tenn., in a novice bantamweight bout, and Floyd Rogers, unattached but fighting from Forrest City, outpointed Tommy Duncan of Jackson in a novice featherweight fight.
Jerry Adams of Forrest City ripped off one of the quickest victories — stopping Robert Branscum, unattached but from Blytheville, in 25 seconds of the opening round. That was a novice featherweight match.
In other results:
Novice flyweight, Donald Marquer, Jackson, Miss.,
stopped David White, Forrest
City, 2.
Novice flyweight, Floyce Ar-demazari, North Little Rock, outpointed Joe Carpenter, Memphis.
Novice bantam, Fred Swatt,
North Little Rock, outpointed
Mike Freedman, Memphis.
Novice featherweight, Jackie Stewart, North Little Rock, outpointed Ray McDavitt, Jackson, Miss., unanimous decision.
Novice featherweight, Dennis Fisher, Blytheville, Ark., outpointed Jimmy Yates, Memphis.
Novice lightweight, Robert Gammon, unattached, Memphis, outpointed Billy Weaver, North Little Rock.
Novice lightweight, Ira Bounds, Jackson, Miss., outpointed Billy Birmingham, Jackson, Tenn.
Open lightweight, Robert Langley, Jackson, Miss., outpointed Johnny Woods, Jackson, Tenn.
Open lightweight, Butch Mc-Coy, North Little Rock, outpointed Jack Finney Cole, Memphis.
Novice welterweight, David
Marquer, Jackson, Miss.,
stopped Jack Hornsby, Jackson, Tenn., 1.
Novice lightweight, Horace Ballard, Memphis, outpointed
Charley Jackson, Forrest City, Ark.
Novice welterweight, Chico
Hernandez, Forrest City, stopped Virgil Smart, North Little Rock, 1.
Novice middleweight, Everett O'Bryan, Jackson, Miss., stopped Lenon White, Forrest
City, 1.
Novice middleweight, Billy Lofin, Memphis, outpointed
Gayle Mangum, North Little Rock.
Open flyweight, Mike Turnage, Jackson, Miss., outpointed Kenny Alsop, Memphis.
Open featherweight, Johnny Obergetfeld, North Little Rock, outpointed Ernest Wolfe, Jackson, Miss.

Wall Has a Right to Complain

MARACAIBO, Venezuela
(AP) — "It was one of the wack-iest rounds I ever shot. I thought I was going to take the gas pipe."
It doesn't sound like that golfer had much of an afternoon and for 11 holes Thursday you couldn't really blame veteran Art Wall for complaining.
The former PGA and Masters champ had suffered through a nightmare start in the Maracaibo Open, first tournament on a four stop Caribbean tour. He had carded a seven on the 10th hole and was far back of defending champion Jim Ferree of Corona, Calif., who was dropping birdie putts of as much as 60 feet all over the course.
Then Wall suddenly caught fire and for the last six holes, he was hotter than the 90 degree weather. The Pocono Manor, Pa., pro birdied No. 12 and No. 13, picked up another birdie on No. 16 and then eagled the 18th to close with a 69, just two strokes back of Ferree's 67.
For awhile, it didn't look like anybody would be able to stay close to Ferree, who tied his own course record.
The 32-year-old pro who beat John Barnum in a sudden death playoff last year to win this tournament after losing a similar playoff to George Knudson in 1962 shot six birdies, four of them on the front nine. He holed one putt from 35 feet out and another from 60 and missed only one green all day but still managed to birdie the hole.
Four players shared third place with 70s. They were Adrien Bigras, a Canadian playing out of Tempe, Ariz., Bob Gaida of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., Billy Capps of Beckley, W. Va. and Jay Dolan of Leicester, Mass.

Superstition Practiced in Reverse

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Friday the 13th came on Thursday this month, but that didn't bother W. Robert (Bob) Allison, Minnesota's practitioner of reverse superstition.
Allison, one of the American League's most prolific home run hitters, flouts the superstition surrounding the number 13 by signing his contract every year on the 13th of some month.
In doing so, however, the 29-year-old outfielder actually is superstitious in his own way.
He performed the same old ritual Thursday in Orlando, Fla., but it was accompanied by a new ornament — a first basemen's glove.
Allison took the glove to Orlando because either he or fellow slugger Harmon Killebrew may be switched to first base to make room in the outfield for Tony Oliva, a rookie who is given a better-than-even chance of forcing such a move.
It wouldn't be the first time Allison has played first, but he has been slightly less sensational there than Hal Chase.
"I can play first base, and I will if they want me to," Allison said. "I am not afraid to play first base, and I feel I can do an acceptable job."
First base for the Twins could become crowded. Club President Calvin Griffith wants Allison to play there while Manager Sam Mele favors Killebrew because of an operation on his right knee. Incumbent first baseman Vic Power favors neither.
Another outfielder, veteran Duke Snider signed a contract with the New York Mets for a salary similar to Allison's. However the reported $31,500 represents a pay cut of $6,500 following a season in which he batted .243 with 14 homers and 45 runs batted in.
Third baseman Cleto Boyer of the New York Yankees also returned his signed contract.

Newcomer Is Top Choice for Victory

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Frankie Narvaez, an untied New Yorker with an unbeaten streak of 11, makes his big time debut tonight as a surprising 8-5 choice over lightweight contender Luis Molina of San Jose, Calif., at Madison Square Garden.
The 10-rounder will be telecast nationally by ABC-TV. Starting time is 10 p.m. EST.
Although he is ranked No. 5 among the 135-pound division's contenders Molina will be making his first appearance in the Garden, once the mecca of boxing.
On the basis of his record and the calibre of opponents he has met, the 25-year-old Californian figures to have the edge over the 24-year-old, Puerto Ricanborn Narvaez. The odds seem out of line.
Molina, an aggressive fighter with a knockout wallop has a 24-3 record, including 17 knockouts. He holds victories over Joe Lopes and Len Matthews, onetime contenders, and over former lightweight champion Joe Brown. He never has been stopped.
Narvaez has a 17-1-1 record, including only three knockouts.
His only loss was a decision to Roland Kellem and he whipped the Jamaican in a return bout last night, bringing less than an inch of rain to all sections by Saturday. The rain was expected to end from the west Saturday.
Then cooler weather is predicted by the Weather Bureau.
More rain was forecast for early next week.
Temperatures dropped to 13 early today at Gilbert. Fayetteville had 16 and Batesville and Calico Rock reported 17.
Texarkana was one of the warmest spots in the state with a 32-degree reading.

Steel Fails to Get Opposition

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The ticket for the special election in the 6th Senatorial District closed at midnight Wednesday with Don Steel of Nashville the only qualified candidate.

Voters in the district's four counties will, however, have to go through the formality of an election Feb. 22.

Secretary of State Kelly Bryant said he would mail out ballots today.

The election is being held to fill the unexpired term of the late Sen. Nathan Coulter. The term runs through 1966.

Steel is a deputy prosecuting attorney and served two terms in the Arkansas House in 1957 and 1959.

The counties in the district are Howard, Little River, Sevier and Polk.

The doorbell rang. I turned and went softly toward the door of the bedroom. My right hand was shoved inside my jacket. She went past me with a finger to her lips, shaking her head. I shut the door, cracking it ear-wide, eye-wide. That was when I discovered there was a mirror in the hall from which I could see the front door-another Charlton trick. I watched the mirror.

Gail opened the front door. The big man I'd seen at the service station stood there with one hand in his jacket pocket. His expression changed when he saw Gail.

He said, "Mr. Charlton, please."

I relaxed with the please. Gail had him off balance.

"Jack's out. I'm his sister, Martha Laut. Could I take a message?"

The bald man's hand came out of his pocket, holding a folder. He flipped it open and I saw the gleam of a badge. He said, "I'm from the police, Miss Laut."

"Mrs. Laut."

"I'm from the police, Mrs. Laut. There was a report of prowlers."

"And you're here already. It's a very comforting thought, officer. Now, if you don't mind, I'll call Chief Frazier and ..."

"That won't be necessary. You've not been disturbed?"

"Certainly not. What was your badge number, officer, and your name?"

"Johnson, ma'am. Now I'll just go downstairs and keep an eye on things."

Gail came back to me, laughing.

"Who is he, Gail?"

"I don't know."

"There was a fat man at Solly's. He rolled me out of the car Solly was driving. Not the same caliber as this one."

"Where did he come from, Duffey?"

"He came down the mountain. Jack went up the mountain."

"He's running," Gail said. "He doesn't want a real cop around, not if I'm calling Frazier."

"He's tougher than that, smarter. He was looking for us. He still is. You go after him. Call him by the name he gave you. Tell him somebody's monkeying with the back door. That could be us. Bring him back in, back in with you."

"Duffey, no more of that."

"He's been knocked out before."

Advice to Parents About the Beatles

BOSTON (AP) - Doctors at the adolescents unit of Boston's Children's Hospital Medical Center have some advice for parents who can't abide the sights and sounds of the Beatles.

"Embrace them," was the message sent forth today with the explanation:

"The younger generation is flipping over the Beatles because the singing group is different and because the youngsters feel their parents are disturbed by this teen idolizing."

"Merely convince your children you think the Beatles are the greatest. Once you accomplish this, your youngsters probably will think the Beatles are square."

There was also a smaller knight on a pony. Gail said it was his job to direct the compacts. It was a long way to Solly's part of town.

Junior Girls in Finals in District Play

By CARTER HARDAGE
Hope Star Sports Writer

Striking down Gillham in the second overtime with a single free throw, the Junior Girls won their semi-final match 20-19, and moved into the finals of the District Tournament at Ashdown.

Gillham started off the game by trying to freeze. They were partially successful, and led 7-4 at the Quarter. Hope score only at four out of five trips to the charity line.

Hope heated the game up during the second period, and managed a 10-8 halftime gap. The lead again changed hands during the Third Quarter, with Gillham in front 12-10 going into the final segment.

With Gillham still freezing, Hope nevertheless warmed the sack enough to rate a 14-14 tie at the end of the Fourth.

Both teams popped in four in the first overtime and another was required at 18-18. Hope came out on top with the narrow margin of 20-19, thoroughly earning their position in the finals tonight against Ashdown at 8:00.

Tonight the Bobcats take on tough opposition. Smackover down there. Junior game is at 6:00, and Seniors play at 7:00.

Senate May Probe KC, Finley Fuss

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The defiant efforts of Charles O. Finley to pull his American League baseball club out of Kansas City threatened today to get tangled in a swelling Senate investigation.

The league already has threatened to revoke Finley's franchise unless he comes to terms which would keep the team in Kansas City.

With Finley showing no sign of yielding to his fellow club owners' ultimatum and threatening an antitrust suit if the league attempts to enforce it, Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo., blazed away from the flanks with a new threat of trouble for the battling club owner.

Long announced from Kansas City that he was preparing to demand that the Senate antitrust and monopoly investigating subcommittee subpoena Finley for questioning and his financial records for scrutiny in connection with the row.

Long is a member of the subcommittee, and such a request from a member often is granted—but not always. Chairman Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., told a reporter he would await developments before commenting.

The antitrust subcommittee repeatedly has "invited" Finley to testify Tuesday at a hearing which could bring him into a dramatic confrontation with American League President Joe Cronin, a scheduled witness. Cronin, like Long, insists the team must stay in Kansas City.

Hart announced Thursday that Finley hasn't answered the subcommittee's invitations, and the hearings would go ahead with or without him.

The hearings have been a low pressure affair, seeking sports leaders' views on a bill by Hart which would grant professional football, basketball and hockey the same antitrust law exemptions now allowed pro baseball.

Loud Talk Flows From Two Fighters

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—"If you whip me, I'll crawl across the ring on my hands and knees and kiss your feet. If you lose, will you do the same? Answer me, chump, will you do it?"

Cassius Clay, who seems unusually interested in foot kissing, was challenging Sonny Liston Thursday at a unique news conference. Theater Network Television, which will handle the Feb. 25 heavyweight title match, arranged for special closed circuit television from the fighters' camps in Miami Beach to their lab on Long Island.

"About kissing my feet, Cassius," said the heavyweight champion. "If you last through the third round into the fourth, I'll kiss your feet."

Clay and Liston answered questions from newsmen and then jawed back and forth from opposite ends of Miami Beach. "You want to fight me, winner take all?" asked Liston, a challenge that would have warmed the heart of the late Jack Kearns. Jack always was proposing fight - to-the-finish, winner-take-all battles in Nome or Vladivostok.

"I tell you what we'll do," said Clay. "Your backers take their cut and mine take theirs and I'll meet you at the front door."

"Listen, Cassius," said Liston. "I'm gonna give you half of mine if you show up."

Sonny sat at ringside without a smile while Clay tried to bait him with his prediction:

"I'm gonna upset the whole world. I'm bigger than he is. I'll go about 221 pounds. This is not going to be a giant fighting any Floyd Patterson. This man is scared to death. He'll try to back out of the fight."

When asked if he belonged to the Muslims, a Negro supremacy organization, Clay replied:

"This is fight talk. I have no answer to that kind of question. I want two whole hours on television to tell my whole story after the fight. If I am bad and done wrong, I'm ready to go to jail. I haven't set the dogs on anybody. I'm tending my business."

Liston was asked if he hated Cassius and got this type of an answer:

"I want to leave him with his pretty face so he can get by with it."

Oh yes, Cassius the poet said it again:

"I'm predicting eight to prove I'm great."

The whole show lasted 45 minutes. That may be about 43 minutes longer than the fight.

O'Hara Man to Beat in Olympics

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Tom O'Hara is a red-haired, freckled little fellow about the size of a football waterboy who talks —when pressed— about running a mile in 3 minutes, 54 seconds.

This, of course, puts him on the modest, self-effacing side.

Modest? Well, yes. Particularly so when his coach says he's going to go 3:53 before the season is out.

"He definitely is the man to beat in the Olympic 1,500 meters in Tokyo," jubilant Coach Jerry Welland said today. "I think he will break Peter Snell's outdoor record with a 3:53 mile before long."

O'Hara, a 21-year-old student at Loyola of Chicago, was a little more conservative, even after trimming two full seconds off the indoor record in the New York A. C. Games in Madison Square Garden Thursday night.

"I believe I can do 3:51," the soft-spoken little guy said.

He convinced 13,677 Madison Square Garden customers with a brilliant 3:56.6 effort in the mile Thursday night—the fastest ever run indoors—whipping over the last two laps virtually alone while the crowd howled: "Go, go, go."

Big, burly Bob Hayes of Florida A&M also turned in an outstanding show, equalling the indoor mark of 6 seconds flat in the 60-yard dash, the fourth time this season he has hit it.

Other major winners included Gary Gubner, NYU, in the shot put at 63-2 1/2; Lew Hoyt of Southern California in the high jump at 7-1; John Uelses, La Salle, pole vault, 16-1 1/4; Roy Hicks, U.S. Army, 60-yard high hurdles, 7.3; Wendell Mottley, Yale, 440-yard dash, 48.3; Bill Crothers, Toronto, 880-yard run, 1:50.8; Jay Luck, New Haven Track Club, 500-yard run, 57 flat, and Bruce Kidd, Toronto, 2-mile run, 8:42.6.

Hot Race for Grid Signatures

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The hot race for high school football players' signatures slowed Thursday for the University of Arkansas, with some big names still uncommitted.

Biggest among them were Gordon Norwood, quarterback, and Jim Barnes, end, both of Pine Bluff. Both had numerous offers to consider.

The Razorback staff has signed 12 schoolboys to letters of intent since the signing season began Tuesday. Two were Texans.

Furman Turns in Surprising Cage Upset

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer
Furman made college basketball history a decade ago when the Paladins walloped Newberry 149-95 and Frank Selvy scored 100 points for an individual single game NCAA record that still stands.

Exactly 10 years from that historic night of Feb. 13, 1954, Furman turned in another memorable performance by upsetting the Davidson Wildcats, the nation's fourth-ranked team 70-55.

"We have some special plans for them, and we're going to make them work letter perfect," said Furman Coach Lyles Alley before the game.

That's just what his boys did as they avenged an early season 89-63 trouncing by Davidson to hand the Wildcats their second defeat of the season in 20 starts.

A capacity crowd of 5,600, including Frank Selvy as honor guest, howled in glee at Greenville, S.C. as the Paladins turned the game into a rout with a 14-4 burst late in the game.

Drake stayed on top of the Missouri Valley Conference with a 53-50 victory over North Texas. Bradley downed Tulsa 73-64 in overtime. Providence won its 12th straight by defeating Rhode Island 86-72. Wyoming beat Denver 77-68 and Houston whipped Miami, Fla., 93-83 in other Thursday night games.

Davidson, the only team in The Associated Press Top Ten to play, took an early 10-point lead, was ahead at 33-32 in the second half when the inspired Furman players spurred and opened a 17-point lead at 64-47.

Don Frye, with 18 points, and Frank Selvy's brother, David, with 17 led Furman along with Norman Schaffer who held Davidson's star, Fred Hetzel, to 16 points.

Elorde Gives Chance Only About 50%

MANILA (AP)—Flash Elorde never would make it in Cassius Clay's circles. The Filipino junior lightweight champ who gets a shot at New Yorker Carlos Ortiz' lightweight crown Saturday, gives himself no better than a 50-50 chance. You'd never hear a thing like that from Cassius.

"Ortiz has a good record and you can't blame the people for casting aside sentiment," said Elorde.

Elorde, who had held the junior lightweight crown since 1960, has been having trouble getting down to the 130-pound limit to defend his title. He weighed 137, two pounds over the lightweight limit Thursday.

Saturday's fight will be Elorde's 90th in a 15-year ring career. He is a 7-5 underdog.

The World Boxing Association has sanctioned the bout but required the posting of a $12,600 guarantee that the winner will face Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., No. 1 lightweight challenger.

"I'd fight Lane anytime," said Elorde. But he must whip Ortiz first.

The Puerto Rican-born champion has a 41-4 record with 15 knockouts to his credit. In his last title defense, he stopped Doug Vaillant of Cuba in the 13th round last April.

Baxter Beats Darkness in Tucson Open

By JACK STEVENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Rex Baxter beat darkness to tie Ernie Vossler, and the situation might well be reversed today in the $30,000 Tucson Open Golf Tournament if someone else does not cloud the issue.

A signal flare calling a darkness halt flashed into the sky with the 27-year-old Baxter from Amarillo, Tex., still on the fairway playing his last hole Thursday.

PGA rules said he could complete it and he did in almost total darkness with a par and a pounds, Four Lane, 112, and Hot Cargo, 110.

Henry Forrest, veteran trainer at Oaklawn, named Big Joe, 114, of the J. B. White Estate and Charles A. Dubois' Federal Man, 110.

W. Hal Bishop tabbed Almar, 113, and Blaze Starr, 111. Others nominated and weights: Gomer Evans' Gay Revolve 114 pounds, C. O. Vlar's One dot 110, B. J. Harmon's Sweet Debbie 108, H. J. Wise's Gay's Pal 112, P. L. Grissom's Damodora 110, C. B. McNeill's The Nutts 112, Donald McKellar's Moral Suasion 112, Mrs. G. H. Emick's Heatherbow 111, J. A. McElroy's Quick Reading 110, W. D. Alexander's Ricci C 109, C. H. Swift Jr.'s Cease Firing 109, and Luther Shelton's Yoigal 108.

Marion H. Van Berg, a top trainer at Oaklawn for several years, named three for the 5 1/2 furlong dash: Chat, assigned 114 and 110.

That equaled the score set by 35-year-old Vossler more than four hours earlier over the 49ers Country Club in warm sunshine.

A dozen pros didn't finish and will complete their opening round today amid hopes that frozen greens wouldn't again delay the start of play.

Still to finish his first 18 was defending champion Don Janu-ary who was one under par through 17 holes. Canadian Al Balding was three under with two to play.

Tied at 67 going into the second round were Guy Geiberger of Carlton Oaks, Calif., Chuck Courtney of San Diego, Calif., and Don Massengale of Jacksonville, Tex.

Goalie Shakes Off Injury

DETROIT (AP)—Gordie Howe shook off a painful groin injury and scored two third-period goals against Boston Thursday night as Detroit won its fourth straight National Hockey League game and moved within four points of third-place Toronto.

The Red Wings bumped the Bruins 4-1 in a bruising match that sidelined Boston's rookie sensation, Gary Dornhoefer, and Detroit defenseman Doug Barkley.

Both Dornhoefer, who played the last two periods with a helmet after being knocked unconscious early in the game by Larry Jeffrey's elbow, and Barkley were taken to Detroit Osteopathic Hospital where examinations disclosed broken cheekbones. Barkley was injured in a collision with Guy Gordon. Both players will be out indefinitely.

My infield appears set with Stuart at first, Chuck Shilling at second, Eddie Bressoud at short and Malzone at third. Stuart was a pleasant surprise at bat, hitting 42 home runs and driving in 118 runs.

Bressoud showed surprisingly good power with 20 home runs. Felix Mantilla, a utility man who hit .315, may press Schilling for the regular second base job.

Carl Yastrzemski is the only outfielder sure of a regular job. Roman Mejias and Clinton did not have good years in 1963. It is up to them to show they can hold down regular jobs.

At times Gary Geiger looked like he was ready to take over as a regular in the outfield. He'll be given every chance again this year.

We are hopeful of strengthening our catching before the season gets under way. Bob Tillman didn't hit enough last year and Russ Nixon has handicaps as a receiver.

Bosox Out to Improve Position

(17th of a series of team prospects, written under the manager's own byline)

By JOHNNY PESKY

Boston Red Sox
BOSTON (AP)—We will be out to improve our position in 1964. We have a lot of "ifs" but a great deal depends upon our pitching.

If the pitching is as good as I think it can be, we'll be a contender. It won't be easy because the league will be stronger and better balanced.

Now for the "ifs." If Dick Stuart can keep hitting American League pitching, if Frank Malzone can repeat his 1963 season, if Lu Clinton can come back and have the kind of year he had in 1962, if the young pitchers can do the job.

I really look for the pitching to be better. We've got a good nucleus in 20-game winner Bill Monbouquette, Earl Wilson and young Dave Morehead, who could develop into a real star.

And in Dick Radatz, "The Monster", in the bullpen, ably backed by Jack Lamabe, we've got as fine a relief corps as there is in the league.

I look for Gene Conley to come back. Also Wilson. Earl has a great arm but he was a cheekbones. Barkley was injured in a collision with Guy Gordon. Both players will be out indefinitely.

Fireman Couldn't Save His Own Car

HAMDEN, Conn. (AP)—Walter Thomas' car caught fire and burned in a parking lot Thursday while he was at work in a building about 100 feet away.

Thomas is a dispatcher for the Hamden fire department.

major disappointment in 1963 after pitching a no-hitter the year before.

I'm counting on Bob Heffner, 4-9 after coming up from Seattle in June; and Bill Spanwick, who could be the strong lefty we need. Spanwick was 14-8 at Seattle with 209 strikeouts in 185 innings.

My infield appears set with Stuart at first, Chuck Shilling at second, Eddie Bressoud at short and Malzone at third. Stuart was a pleasant surprise at bat, hitting 42 home runs and driving in 118 runs.

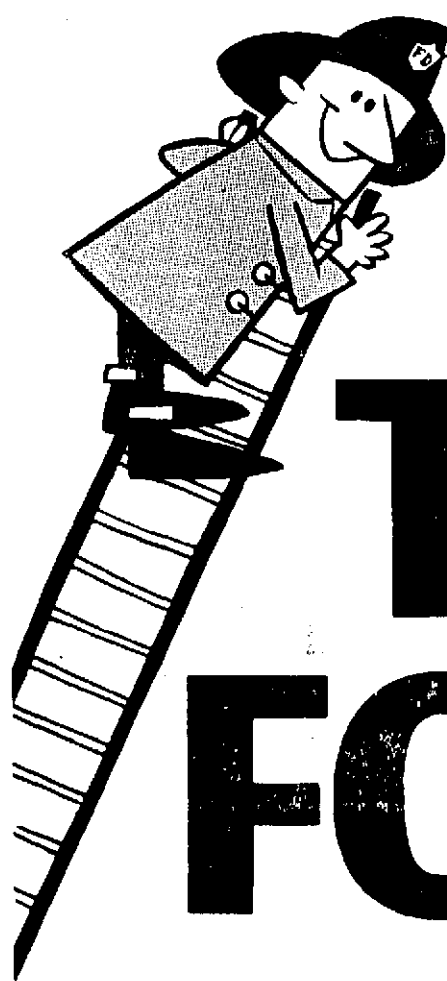

Bressoud showed surprisingly good power with 20 home runs. Felix Mantilla, a utility man who hit .315, may press Schilling for the regular second base job.
